

Additional Information About Kathryn:

I'm committed to providing a personalized homeschooling experience that goes above and beyond traditional teaching methods. With four years of experience in online education, I create personalized lesson plans that combine the CAPS curriculum with hands-on activities and real-world relevance.

I prioritize not just academic achievement but also your child's emotional, social, and creative growth. My approach fosters individual strengths and interests while also developing critical skills such as problem-solving and resilience.

I collaborate with parents to create a positive home learning environment by providing regular progress assessments and open communication.

Additionally, I've just completed my final exam in my BEd foundation phase degree, enhancing my skills in catering to the educational needs of children during their foundational years.
